5.2 FORMAL COMPLAINT

5.2.1 A formal complaint must be recorded in writing. Where possible the complainant should document their complaint themselves by either writing a letter or emailing the Quality Office or by completing an online complaints form. A complainant should refer to the Customer Complaints Guidelines (ref Q-CC-20) particularly the section regarding 'When making a complaint what information must I provide'.

Note: Where an issue raised affects a number of individuals, those individuals can submit a complaint as a group complaint. In such circumstances the name of each individual must still be provided but the organisation may ask the group to nominate one individual to act as group representative. The Organisation may decide to communicate only through the representative and expect him or her to liaise with the other individuals.

Note: It is Organisational Policy for the complainant to provide their full name and contact details, in order for the Organisation to fully investigate a complaint. However, if there is a compelling case, supported by evidence, the matter may be investigated. It must be noted however, that raising a concern anonymously may impede the investigation and communication of the outcome.

- 5.2.2 Where the complainant approaches a member of staff and wishes to make a complaint and clauses 5.1.1- 5.1.3 have been followed/considered and either the recipient or the complainant considers it appropriate, the recipient will either:
  - (i) Record the complaint themselves on a Customer Complaint Form (ref Q-CC-01) and forward the form to the Quality Assurance Manager within one working day of the complaint being recorded (unless the complaint is regarding the Quality Assurance Manager then see clause 5.2.4).

OR

- (ii) Where it is not appropriate or possible to record the complaint themselves, immediately arrange for the Duty Manager or a member of Management Team to record the complaint.
- 5.2.3 The Duty Manager or the member of the Management Team contacted as a result of 5.2.2 (ii) will complete a Customer Complaint Form (ref Q-CC-01) and forward it within one working day to the Quality Assurance Manager (unless the complaint is regarding the Quality Assurance Manager then see clause 5.2.4).
- 5.2.4 Where a complaint is about the Quality Assurance Manager, the Customer Complaint Form must be sent to the Director or Curriculum, who will undertake the further actions in this procedure which are normally the responsibility of the Quality Assurance Manager
- 5.3 MAKING AN INTERNAL COMPLAINT
- 5.3.1 A member of staff who wishes to make a complaint will record the complaint on a Customer Complaint Form (ref Q-CC-01) and forward it to the Quality Assurance Manager (unless the complaint is regarding the Quality Assurance Manager then see clause 5.1.5).

Appendix 1 – Early Resolution

- 1. Early resolution is designed to address straightforward concerns swiftly, before it is escalated to a formal complaint. This might include:
  - Giving more information or a more detailed explanation
  - Suggesting solutions
  - Being empathetic and understanding when there is no apparent solution
  - Giving an apology where it seems appropriate to do so
- 2. Questions to consider in attempting early resolution of concerns might include:
  - What specifically is the concern about and which area(s) of the Organisation is/are involved?
  - What outcome is the student hoping for and can it be achieved?
  - Is the concern straightforward and likely to be resolved with little or no investigation?
  - Can it be resolved on the spot by providing, where appropriate, an explanation, an alternative solution or an apology?
  - Can someone else assist in seeking resolution, for example where an informal administrative resolution is required?
  - Would it be helpful to use confidential mediation or conciliation, and are the parties willing to do so?
  - What assistance or support can be provided to the complainant in taking this forward?

Mediation and Conciliation are usually voluntary processes where an impartial, independent third party helps parties to a dispute resolve issues confidentially. Using mediation or conciliation during the early resolution stage can help both parties to understand what is driving the concern and may be more likely to result in a swift and mutually satisfactory conclusion being reached.

- 3. Whatever early resolution mechanism is used, the complainant should be able to air their concerns and feel that they have been listened to. It may be possible to resolve the concern by providing an on-the-spot explanation of why the issue occurred and/or (where appropriate) an apology and an explanation of what will be done to stop a similar situation happening in the future.
- 4. If responsibility for the issue raised lies in the staff member's area of work, every attempt should be made to resolve the concern at source in consultation with the complainant. If responsibility lies elsewhere, the staff member should work with the relevant colleagues to help resolve the complainant's concern, rather than simply passing the complainant on to another office. Where this is not possible, and the complainant is directed to liaise with another office, it is good practice to introduce the complainant to the person who will deal with the concern or to make an appointment for the complainant at the earliest opportunity.
- 5. Where it is clear early resolution is not appropriate or possible, and that a concern will need to proceed immediately to the formal stage, the complainant should be directed promptly to the Customer Complaints Procedure and Customer Complaints Guidelines (Q-CC-20). They should be advised to complete the appropriate form or email Quality@bacoll.ac.uk to provide full details of the complaint and to provide any relevant documentation.
- 6. It is good practice to record the actions taken to consider and resolve the concern. The decision and minimum details of what was communicated with the complainant should be forwarded to the Quality office for logging purposes.
