1. Welcome and introduction

Welcome from your programme tutors:

Welcome to Bishop Auckland College. Your course of study has been designed with you in mind and we want you to have a valuable learning experience during your time with us. This handbook is designed to provide you with relevant information for your programme of study. It can enable you to better understand what you will be doing, where you will be doing it, when you will be doing it and the roles and responsibilities of key people, including yourself.

It is divided into sections which cover details of your programme of study; information which you need to know about both Bishop Auckland College and the Open University, who validate your award, as well as general information about being a student.

If you find that you have a query that the handbook does not cover, please ask. The most likely persons to be able to help you will be your Tutor or the Programme Leader.

This handbook should be read in conjunction with the Bishop Auckland College programme specification, available separately. Please see your Programme Leader for details or visit the programme page on Moodle.

As an Open University student you will also be issued with module guides for each module of the programme. These guides will be available from your Module Tutor within the College.

We hope you enjoy your time with us at Bishop Auckland College and we wish you well on this programme of study.

Introduction to the programme

Welcome to the BSc (Hons) Sports Coaching (Top Up) Programme (2023 – 2024 or 2025 Part Time). The BSc (Hons) Sports Coaching (Top Up) programme offered at Bishop Auckland College and validated by the Open University is designed for people who wish to pursue a career in Sports Coaching or who wish to enhance their coaching ability for use within their existing or future employment. The one/two-year degree Top-Up programme is designed and incorporates the framework of The International Council for Coaching Excellence (2016). The BSc (Hons) in Sports Coaching (Top Up) enables students to become reflective practitioners within a creative and innovative approach underpinned by research.

The BSc (Hons) Sports Coaching (Top Up) Programme aims to:

- Produce knowledgeable and skilled graduates in the field of Sports Coaching.
- Provide students with the opportunity to apply their knowledge, understanding and practical expertise in a variety of contexts.
- Develop students' ability to collect primary and secondary data through a range of appropriate research methods.
- Develop the ability to evaluate and analyse new knowledge and experiences by drawing upon theories, principles and concepts to inform understanding and practice.
- Develop an independent approach to learning and professional development, self-appraisal and reflective practice, enabling students to become innovative, creative and adaptable graduates.
- Equip students with a multidisciplinary skills base that can be applied in an interdisciplinary context.
- Create a strong foundation for lifelong learning and continuing professional and personal development.

The development of knowledge, cognitive and practical skills that are transferable across a range of contexts and domains including employment and further study in accordance with QAA Benchmark statements for Hospitality, Leisure, Sport and Tourism.

Attendance

Attendance Requirements

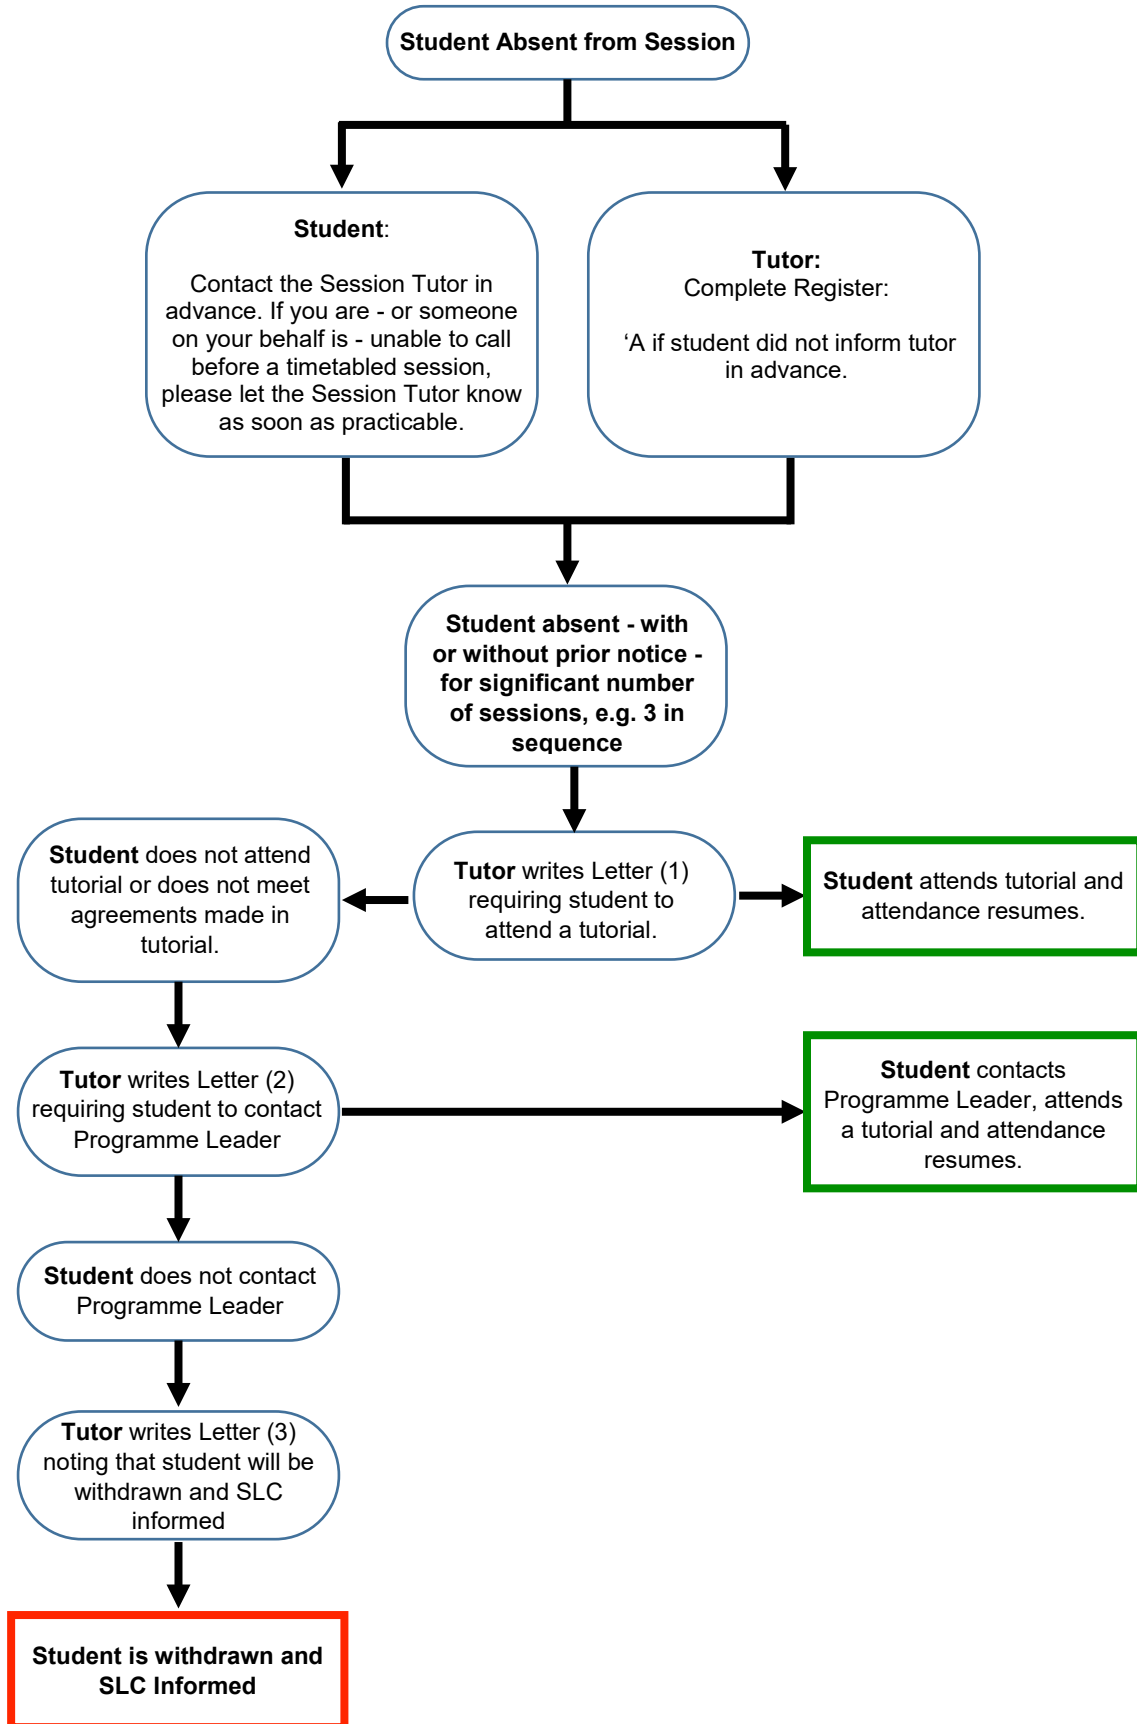

Regular and full attendance on the programme is a very important component of counselling/psychotherapy training for reasons of currency of theory into practice and of group dynamics. We expect that students will commit themselves to 100% attendance on all aspects of the programme (as far as is humanly possible).

Any student who does not meet these requirements will be at risk of failing the programme. If students do miss sessions they will be expected to provide evidence of the work they have undertaken in their absence to ensure they do not fall behind. In the event of extenuating circumstances that affect attendance then students will be required to follow the extenuating circumstances procedure and any application will be reviewed by the panel on an individual basis.

All classes will start promptly therefore any student arriving late will be expected to show consideration and sensitivity to what is going on in the room on arrival. It is the student's responsibility to notify Tutors that they will be late. Continual lateness will affect attendance records.

The process for repeated absence is outlined below;

Repeated Absence – Process Flowchart

A professional attitude

This is a BSc (Hons) degree course and students are expected to behave accordingly, adopting a self-disciplined approach to all aspects of the programme, including, a mature attitude to private study and self-reliance when using all college systems, including information retrieval of handbook information, on-line resources as well as assignment preparation, etc. Students are to ensure that they comprehensively familiarise themselves with this handbook. When on placements or during coaching practice, students are expected to fulfil all aspects of placement requirements in a professional manner.

Structure of Programme & Progression

Part-time Pathway

	Credit value	Semester	Suggested Year of programme
LEVEL 6
Advanced Coaching Practice	30	1 and 2	1
Contemporary Issues in Sports Coaching and Health	20	1	1
Research Project	40	1 and 2	2
Performance Analysis	30	2	2

Part time students

Within the part-time pathway the modules are split over a two year period (see table above) therefore progression occurs in the same sequence as in the full-time pathway except the programme will take two years to complete rather than one.

All regulations and support structures remain unchanged across Full Time and Part Time provision, the only difference is the timing of modules and the overall programme time (1 year or 2 years)

Notional hours

Within each module guide you will be given a specific breakdown of the study hours required for that module this will include taught and self-study time. As a rule, 1 credit is 10 the equivalent to 10 hours, e.g. 20 credits equates to 200 notional hours. Of this 200 hours, you will have around 45 hours of contact delivery with the remaining hours being made up of reading, independent study and working and study for assessment.

Weekly timetable

A copy of your weekly timetable will be given to you during welcome week(s). The timetable is also available on Moodle. You will have a minimum of one taught session per week for each of the modules across the programme.

Expected hours of study

The normal amount of work involved in achieving a successful outcome to your studies is to study for 10 hours per week per credit you need to achieve – this includes attendance at college and time spent in private study, e.g. Introduction to Coaching Practice is 30 credits and therefore, requires commitment of on or around 300 hours.

Student support, guidance and advice

What support can the college offer you?

Support for a student can take various forms. If you feel you need support to help with your academic work and completion of the programme talk please talk to your tutor.

It is advisable that at the earliest opportunity you tell someone within the college about your needs: Write it on your application form. Talk to someone at interview. Ask at Student Services. Talk to your tutor at induction. Talk to your tutor during tutorial. Obviously, the sooner you tell us, the sooner we can help.

If you want to communicate with the module tutors, remember that they teach on other modules and programmes, visit students on placements and attend a wide range of meetings and are practicing therapists; they may not therefore be available immediately. It's always best to contact them and make an appointment in advance if you can. Tutors will answer emails as quickly as possible but the duties described above may mean that they cannot access their computers every day; you can expect a reply to an email in 2-3 working days.

Induction

Induction will occur in the first week of a programme of study. Induction will be facilitated by the course team but will also involve meeting support staff and other college personnel. During the induction students will receive an introduction to and overview of their programme of study, a tour of the college including the learning zone, bespoke facilities and amenities, introduction to college systems such as: Moodle and the Student Portal, made aware of relevant and necessary policies and procedures such as: Health & Safety, Equality & Diversity, GDPR as well as important issues such as attendance, support and communication.

Personal tutor

All students will be assigned a personal tutor at the beginning of their academic study. Personal tutors will provide support to students on all aspects of their learning as well as any personal matters that might arise. Personal tutors will undertake regular tutorials with students and record a summary of these meetings on Etrackr, as well as providing a weekly scheduled drop-in time that students can access without an appointment.

Study skills

The learning zone staff offer support and help with certain areas of study skills such as assignment structure, referencing, journals searches and accessing the VLE (Moodle).

Careers advice

Regular industrial updating, career information and enhancement opportunities are provided to students on their programme of learning by the course team and personal tutors. Alternative career advice can be sought from the college's Student Progression Team.

Counselling & student welfare

Students whose learning is being negatively affected by personal difficulties can seek support from student progress mentors within student support or alternatively can access the colleges counselling service. Students can self-refer or ask their personal tutor to make a referral on their behalf. Referral forms are available from room 265. The counselling service co-ordinator is Lindsey Moses (Lindsey.Moses@bacoll.ac.uk).

Support for students with disabilities

Students who require support with disabilities should inform the course team at interview of their disabilities. The course team will seek through conversation with the student to understand their particular needs and what reasonable adjustments need to be put into place to ensure the student has fair access to their programme of learning. With the students' permission the course team may need to get other college personnel, such as the Health & Safety Officer involved to make adequate arrangements.

Financial advice and support

Students can access financial advice and support in Student Services and via our Student Funding Officer based within the Finance Department.

Moodle

Moodle is part of the college's Management Information Systems (MIS) and Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). You can access Moodle whilst on the College site by logging onto your college network account and opening the student intranet home page. You will need to enter your College network ID and password. Alternatively, you can also access the College's Moodle from outside College by going to <https://moodle.bacoll.ac.uk/moodle/> and entering your network ID and password.

Moodle is a great place to look for information to help you with your course. There are useful links to key resources and websites. You can also access calendars which show upcoming events as well as forums.

Moodle enables you to keep in contact with tutors and friends if you are on Instant Messaging and the many forums that have been established to support you. These communication tools are particularly useful if you are out of the College. Moodle is available 24 hours a day, 365 days per year and from anywhere in the world.

Moodle is used extensively as a tool to support learning; providing a wide range of learning resources, they might provide access to resources such as teaching notes, PowerPoint presentations or, in some cases, multimedia scenarios and video lectures. Other resources may include access to module guides, assignments and links to other websites to help with your studies including study skills support.

Moodle is also used to submit some assessments; this is particularly useful when assessments include video footage. It can be used for confidential discussions with tutors and for wider discussions via online forums. Moodle is also an important tool for personal development planning.

Moodle is accessible both within the college and externally via the college's website.

All policies and procedures relating to your programme of study area available on the student portal, they are linked in this handbook and the college website under higher education.

Opportunities for personal development planning

Each student will have access to Personal Development Planning on Moodle and be supported to do this by their personal tutor.

Assessment and progression regulations

Identification of all elements of assessment, including type, volume weighting and timings of assessment

Please refer to Module guides and assignment briefs for specific information on each assessment.

Minimum pass marks for modules

To obtain an Open University award, students are required to complete all parts of the programme's approved assessment and comply with all regulations relating to their programme of study.

The minimum aggregate pass marks for the Open University validated awards are:

40% for undergraduate programmes

These minima may apply to assessment elements as stated in the wording of the module specifications, but will apply to modules, stages and qualifications.

Rules governing late submissions

Late submissions will receive a penalty of -10% per day of lateness to a minimum result of 40%.

Rules governing extension to submission deadlines

Student requests for extensions to assessment deadlines will not be approved unless made in accordance with published partner institution guidelines as approved by the Open University.

Process for requesting deferral of modules

To request a module be deferred an application for this should be made initially to the Extenuating Circumstances Committee, which will be reported to the relevant Module Assessment/Progression and Awards Boards.

Assessment of work-based learning

Details on the assessment of work-based learning can be found in the WBL/Placement Handbook and in the Module Guides.

Assessment of presentations and performance

Where formative assessment is required on presentations and/or performance this will be offered verbally and may be supported by unstructured notes. Where summative assessment is required for presentations and/or performance specific criteria will be given to students to meet and the assessment will be formed against these criteria.

Definitions and consequences of academic misconduct, including plagiarism

Academic misconduct is defined by the college as any activity or attempted activity which gives an unfair advantage to one or more students over their peers.

Plagiarism is defined by the college as the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own. The college requires all students to use the plagiarism checking tool Ephorus, which is available on Moodle via the assignment hand in service. All assessment will indicate the process for submission, including the use of Ephorus. For more advice and information on plagiarism click here.

Please refer to the Higher Education Academic Misconduct Regulations for further details, found here.

Mechanisms for provision of feedback to students on performance, and the role of formative and summative assessment.

Throughout their study programme students will be offered both formative and summative assessment on their performance. Formative assessment will be mostly verbal feedback given by both tutors and peers, whereas summative feedback will always be given as a written assessment.

Acceptable forms of academic referencing and citation

As a student, it is important that you identify in your assessment when you are using the words or ideas of another author. The most accepted way of acknowledging the work of another author is to use a referencing system. Failure to properly reference using the Harvard system may make the reader think that you are cheating by claiming someone else's work as your own. In the academic environment, we call this plagiarism and it is seen as a very serious offence. Please remember that plagiarism is not just when you directly copy words from another student's or expert's work. Plagiarism also occurs when a student re-words someone else's ideas in your own work and you do not give credit to the original source.

It is extremely important that students correctly reference all paraphrasing and direct quotations. While there are many referencing rules and conventions under the Harvard system, in most cases it is generally important in the text of an assignment to show the reader the author's name, date of publication and page numbers of the original source. In the reference list, it is important that the author's name, the year of publication, relevant titles, and other access information is faithfully reproduced. At first, the referencing system may seem time-consuming and fussy but it will soon become second nature to you and will become part of the long list of skills you will have gained as a university student.

You will be provided with a copy of the textbook, 'Cite Them Right; The essential referencing guide (Palgrave Study Skills).'

Progression regulations

In order to complete and pass a stage of a programme, a student must normally acquire the total number of credits set out in the programme specification at the approved qualification level for the award. Exceptions are restricted to those detailed in paragraph 17.5.3 of the OU Regulations for Validated awards (available on the student portal) below or have been exempted through advanced standing, or through the implementation of the processes covering extenuating circumstances

Unless otherwise stated in the approved programme specification, compensation will be applied at stage level and agreed during an examination board when the following conditions are met:

- (a) No more than 20 credits whichever is greater, can be compensated in any one stage of an undergraduate or postgraduate programme.

- (b) Compensation is not permitted for modules within awards of less than 120 credits in total.
- (c) Progression/Module Award Boards should assure themselves that learning outcomes of the qualification level have been satisfied. The process for evaluating cases will be identified in the programme specification.
- (d) A minimum mark of no more than 5 percentage points below the module pass mark has been achieved in the module to be compensated.
- (e) Taking the module mark to be compensated into account, an aggregate mark of 40% has been achieved for the qualification level of the undergraduate programme
- (f) No compensation shall be permitted for any core project/dissertation/capstone module, as defined in the programme specification.
- (g) PSRB requirements may exempt certain modules from compensation – this will be articulated in the programme specifications.

Reassessment and re-sits

The board of examiners may, at its discretion, make such special arrangements as it deems appropriate in cases where it is not practicable for students to be reassessed in the same elements and by the same methods as at the first attempt. However, where a validated programme is discontinued, provision has to be made to ensure fair assessment opportunities for all students who have been enrolled.

17.3.1 Resit provision is subject to all the following conditions:

- (a) A student may resit the failed assessment components of a module only once. Where there are extenuating circumstances, the Progression/Module Award Board has discretion to decide whether a further assessment opportunity shall be permitted, unless explicitly prohibited in the rules for the programme, as approved in the validation process and programme specification.
- (b) A student who does not complete the resit by the date specified shall not progress the programme, except in cases where the process for allowing extenuating circumstances has been followed.
- (c) Resits can only take place after the meeting of the Progression/Module Award Board or following agreement by the Chair and the External Examiner of the Board.
- (d) A student who successfully completes any required resits within a module shall be awarded the credit for the module and the result for the individual assessment component capped at the minimum pass mark for the module.

- (e) A student shall not be permitted to be reassessed by resit in any module that has received a pass mark, or in a component that has received a mark of 40% or above at UG level.
- (f) The resit will normally be carried out by the same combination of written examination, coursework etc. as in the first attempt.

Extenuating circumstances

The Extenuating Circumstances Policy including a copy of the Extenuating Circumstances form (Appendix 3) is available on the student portal here.

Assessment Appeals Procedure

College staff will follow the appeals guidance issued by the college (BAC-C-07 – Appeals Procedure) which is available on the student portal here.

Dissertations and projects

Supporting arrangements

Students will receive taught sessions on research methods: lectures and workshops, prior to their individual development of their research area and independent learning.

Students will be assigned an appropriate research supervisor with relevant knowledge and expertise at the beginning of this module, once their area of research has been confirmed, who they will meet with on a regular basis for guidance and support.

Students will also have the continued support of their personal tutor.

In all aspects of the research project module (including viva-voce in dissertation presentations) students will be expected to adhere to the explicit instructions and criteria set.

Students will be guided on all submissions to the Research Ethics Board.

The Research Ethics Policy is available on the student portal and can be found here.

Determination of results

Assessment weightings for the overall scheme and within specific modules.

All degree programmes are made up of 360 credits, 120 credits per level/year. Modules range in size from 20 to 40 credits with assessment tasks reflecting the credit weighting attributed to the module.

How results are communicated

Unratified results are communicated to students via assignment assessment feedback 20 working days after submission. The Progression/Module Assessment Board meets tri-annually and ratifies these results, following which students receive formal confirmation of their marks.

Rules for determining degree classification

Classification of bachelor degrees will be based on the average mark across all modules within Stage 3 (usually Credit Level 6) and Stage 2 (usually Credit Level 5) at a ratio of 2:1 respectively unless the requirements of a Professional, Statutory and Regulatory Body (PSRB) state otherwise.

Honours degrees are classified as:

First class	Aggregate mark of 70% or above
Upper Second class	Aggregate mark between 60% and 69%
Lower Second class	Aggregate mark between 50% and 59%
Third class	Aggregate mark between 40% and 49%

As this programme is a direct entry Level 6 top-up award qualification (e.g. all students will have previously undertaken a Higher National Diploma (HND) or Foundation Degree (FD) award) the calculation for the honours classification will be based solely on all credits at this OU-validated programme only, for credits at Level 6 (this will be the case for all students completing this “Top Up” programme).

Performance in work for which an award of credit for prior learning has been made is not taken into account in the calculation of the final award. See section 22 of the OU Validated Partnership Regulations for rules related to credit for prior learning.

Where the final result of the award classification calculation creates a mark of 0.5% or greater this will be rounded up to the next full percentage point (e.g. 69.5% is rounded to 70%; 59.5% to 60%; and so on). Where the calculation creates a mark below 0.5% this will be rounded down to the next full percentage point (e.g. 69.4% is rounded to 69%; 59.4% to 59%; and so on). For the purposes of rounding up or down, only the first decimal place is used.

Role of assessment boards, external examiners and MRAQCP

All programmes has robust, appropriate procedures, systems and standards in place to assess, ensure and maintain the quality of the learning and assessment and uphold the validity of the award.

Other institutional policies and regulations

Grounds and procedures for appeals

Grounds for appeal

There are specific grounds under which an academic appeal can be submitted. These are set out in the Student Academic Appeal Policy and Procedures, found here.

In summary, an academic appeal may be made where there is evidence to show one or more of the following:

- Your performance was affected by special circumstances that you could not report at the time for valid reasons and these special circumstances have not been taken into account when the relevant academic decision was made or before the relevant Board of Examiners made their deliberations.
- Staff or bodies have not followed approved regulations and procedures.
- There has been a material lack of clarity on the part of the college which has affected your performance.
- Staff or bodies have not acted fairly towards you by showing bias in the way they have made an academic decision.

Student Academic Appeals Procedure (The Open University)

The College is committed to dealing with appeals as quickly as possible, and to complete the processing of a formal appeal and any associated review within 90 calendar days wherever possible.

Procedure

Appeals are only considered if they are based on the grounds detailed in the Academic Appeals Procedure \(BAC-C-07\)

Student voice: arrangements for student feedback and participation in evaluation:

Quality and standards are at the forefront of our commitment to ensuring that the student journey is an excellent one. Therefore, student feedback is considered very important, to review and subsequently improve the college, and its facilities, the programme structure, including module content. Throughout the academic year student feedback is sought, using a range of different methods and approaches.

Student Surveys

Online induction, mid-year and end of programme surveys are undertaken with all students anonymously via their student email accounts, and this is facilitated by an external user views organisation.

Students in the final year of study also participate in the NSS (National Student Survey).

Student Forums

The principal facilitates a termly 'focus group' where students representing all higher education programmes can provide valuable feedback, worries and concerns, as well as suggestions as to how quality and standards can be improved.

The HE Student Liaison Mentor will hold adhoc student forums at programme / subject level, based on informal feedback, suggestions and where deemed appropriate in responses to concerns and complaints.

Tutorial Support

Individual feedback on all aspects of the student's learning experience is recorded on the college learner management system during one to one tutorials. This information is used to support the student appropriately in their studies.

Module evaluation

Feedback is also collected by the programme team at the end of each module to evaluate the students learning experience on each aspect of the programme.

Student representatives

At the beginning of the year, each group elects a representative, and someone to replace them when they are absent. The role of the student representative is to take the views of their peers, both positive and negative to various committees and forums. The students will be told about the meetings in plenty of time using various methods (social media pages, letter, text etc.) and must attend every meeting unless excused for authorised reasons.

Student representation on committees

Student representatives will have the opportunity to participate within the governance structure, by representing the programme on forums and committees, such as the HE Quality and Standards Committee, Marketing Committees, HE Focus Groups and Programme Team Meetings.

Students Union

The Student Union here at Bishop Auckland College, allows you the opportunity to have your say on what happens in your College. We continuously strive to provide you with the best experiences possible during your time here, however we also value your opinions and ideas on how we can improve. Becoming part of the BAC SU, gives you the chance to shape your learning experience and positively affect the college as a whole.
